

CLASS OF 2021

Anabelle Dias

Described by friends, family, and many of her clients as a prolific deliverer of truth and justice, Anabelle Dias shines as the leader of The Law Offices of Anabelle Dias, P.A. Anabelle arrived in the US from France in 1990. After pursuing Legal Studies at TCC, Anabelle went on to earn an Accounting degree from Florida State University, and was then accepted to the prestigious FSU College of Law. Since 1999, Anabelle has been a practicing attorney in the state of Florida and handles criminal and civil rights cases.

Early in her career, Anabelle worked as an attorney in the Leon County Public Defender's Office. During that time, she handled felony, misdemeanor, traffic, and juvenile cases in Leon, Gadsden, and Liberty Counties. Anabelle has extensive trial experience and works well with Offices of the State Attorney to achieve the best possible outcomes for her clients, touting high-profile trial wins as proof that the truth prevails overall. In 2020, Anabelle was named an Elite Lawyer and recognized as one of the most exceptional attorneys in the United States.

Anabelle is also very active in the community through academics and civic measures. She has worked as an adjunct instructor at Tallahassee Community College, teaching various undergraduate legal classes. Aside from her passion to her clients and community, one of Anabelle's standout qualities is her ability to work with people of diverse backgrounds and make everyone feel comfortable in her presence. As Lauren, a former client of Anabelle's explained, "Anabelle is not only a forceful advocate for justice, but an amazing, sweet, reassuring person."
